

Save the card; it's sacred. Twenty years from now you'll weep over it again and thank God for the chance.

Say a prayer for its sender—the best mother a fellow ever had.

And then sit down and write—well, write just the kind of letter she's been waiting to receive from her boy.

WANT NEW CHILD LABOR LAW AS BLOW TO EMPLOYERS

A bitter pill for child labor users is a bill which will be presented to the state legislature next week. It is a safeguard for the youth and girl during the years of growth from 14 to 21.

Among its provisions:

No child under 14 years shall be permitted to work.

Children must attend public or private school until 16. Children between 14 and 16 may not work during hours when school is in session, but may work during a vacation period.

Hazardous employment absolutely forbidden.

Children between 16 and 18 may be required to present physical certificate to work, if deemed necessary by the factory inspector.

No boy under 16 or girl under 18 may work more than eight hours in any calendar day in any capacity.

No person under 21 years may work as messenger boy for a telegraph company between 9 p. m. and 6 a. m.

Penalties for violation are $15 to $100.

Victor Olander, Jane Addams, Mrs. Gertrude Howe Britton, Oscar Nelson and Win. Bodine are among its sponsors.

DREAM ENDS IN DEATH

New York, March 6. — For years Samuel Leechman has been saving to get a motorcycle. Yesterday his dream was realized. He started out and was killed within two blocks of his home when the machine skidded.

ITALIANS TO GET CHANCE TO PROVE CLAIMED "FRAME-UP"

New York, March 6.—Frank Aberno and Charles Carbone, the two young Italians caught placing bombs in St. Patrick's cathedral, are going to get a chance to prove that their arrest was a police "frame-up," as they allege. Judge Edward Swann adjourned their pleading to the indictment until Monday. Judge Swann is anxious to get at the bottom of the claim that the arrest was the work of over-zealous police officials.

MRS. YOUNG'S BUDGET BLOCKED

Budget troubles for Mrs. Young, supt of schools, are not over. Although the finance committee had passed upon the budget prepared by her without any material cuts, John J. Sonstebly, who was unable to attend the meeting, threw a bolt in the machinery by declaring that the budget was not scientific.

Some time ago the board decided that in future all budgets must not ask for lump sums, but should show to whom and for what the cash goes. Mrs. Young's budget did not. Her estimate got by the rest of the committee, but when Sonstebly kicked last night it was announced that she might have to do her work over.
